
MAIN FUNCTIONS OF THE OFFICE OF BIOTECHNOLOGY AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Intellectual Property Management

- Manage Einstein-Montefiore patent portfolio
- Elicit & process invention disclosures
- Staff to Patent Committee
- Manage relationship with patent counsel
- Sponsor (iEdison) reporting and compliance (Acceptance Agreements)

Licensing-Related Activities

- Evaluate inventions
- Market technologies
- Negotiate license/corporate and securities-related documents
- Manage relationship with licensees
- Invoicing and income distributions

Management of Novel Resources

- Local and federal economic and technology development initiatives
- Technology Development Program
- Pharmaceutical company relationships/programs (e.g., Pfizer CTI)
- Venture capital relationships/programs (e.g., Osage and Accelerator)

Agreements Negotiated/Managed by Office

- License and option agreements
 - Corporate/securities agreements
 - Industry-sponsored research agreements
 - Collaboration agreements (industry and academic)
 - Service agreements
 - Institution-wide agreements
 - Inter-institutional agreements
 - Revenue sharing agreements
 - Grant-related IP and data management plans
 - Material transfer agreements
 - Repository agreements
 - Confidential disclosure agreements
 - Consulting agreements
 - IP language in foundation and clinical trial agreements
-