THE NEW YORK CITY HUMAN RESOURCE ADMINISTRATION (HRA)

If you're in a financial crisis and can't pay your rent (or come up with the rent, security deposit and broker's fee for a new apartment), the Human Resource Administration (HRA) may be able to help. In emergencies, HRA provides no-interest loans that cover one month's rent (or rent, security deposit, and broker's fee for a new apartment). You must pay back the money steadily over one to two years. It is important to take this into account when you make a decision to accept the loan. But it is also a good resource if you are in a temporary financial crisis.
